

Bonnie Greer

Playwright, poet, author and critic

Topic of Speech:

Transnationality: How To Achieve A "New" Europe

How do we create an ethnically diverse Europe comfortable with itself?

Has Europe always been ethnically diverse?

Is the history of Europe really the history of migration?

Her expertise:

In 1986, inspired by black theatre in the UK, Bonnie Greer moved to the UK from the USA. She has since been active in UK theatre and is a regular contributor to Newsnight Review.

Other Activities:

- Deputy Chairman of the British Museum's Board of Trustees
- A former Arts Council Playwright in residence at the Soho Theatre and for NITRO (formerly Black Theatre co-operative)
- She has written two novels: Hanging by her Teeth (1994) and Entropy (2009)
- She is an occasional writer for The Guardian and New Statesman and is a former critic of Time Out Magazine
- She featured in the infamous Question Time with Nick Griffin

Date:

2nd February, Trinity's Danson Room, 7.30pm

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD
EUROPEAN AFFAIRS SOCIETY

