

Tariq Ramadan

Holder of His Highness Hamad Bin Khalifa Al-Thani Chair in Contemporary Islamic Studies

Topic of Speech: Europe's future with Islam

Will Muslims and non-Muslims learn to coexist peacefully in Europe?

Can a 'Western Islam' be developed?

What will this look like?

His expertise: A Research Fellow at St. Anthony's College, he is the grandson of Hassan al Banna who founded the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt.

- Other Activities:
- Sat on a British government taskforce in 2005: 'Working Group on Tackling Extremism'.
 - Took part in a televised debate with Sarkozy in 2003.
 - Has written more than 20 books on Islam and on the relationship between the Islamic world and its global neighbours.
 - Is or has been involved with several working parties on Islam in the world and, particularly Europe, including: the British Council, Deutsches Orient Institute, Vienna Peace Summit, The Parliament of the World's Religions 2004 in Barcelona, and the "Laïcité et Islam" commission of the French Educational League.

Date: 26th of January, Mansfield, 7pm

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD
EUROPEAN AFFAIRS SOCIETY

